

Pain quiz, can you make it through this unscathed???

1. Give a definition of pain:

2. Is pain useful?

3. What sorts of pain can you name?

4. Name a common painkiller and its dose / 24 hours. And possible side effects:

5. Migraines are the most common cause of days lost from work in industrialised countries?

True / Debateable / False.

6. It is possible to experience a significant event such as a heart attack and not experience any pain?

True / Debateable / False.

7. Pain can be measured objectively?

True / Debateable / False.

8. Management of pain is always relatively simple once its cause is established?

True / Debateable / False.

9. Despite many different painkillers being available, one preferred drug is often better for particular types of pain?

True / Debateable / False.

10. When bumping your funny bone you are actually bumping the ulnar nerve?

True / Debateable / False.

11. Where all the layers of the skin are lost in a third degree burn more pain will be experienced than a surface burn or scold?

True / Debateable / False.

12. 64% of people being treated for chronic pain (pain story, 2012) believe they are taking the most appropriate medications?

True / Debateable / False.

13. It is not safe to mix different types of painkillers in pain treatment?

True / Debateable / False.