

Ready to show your true leadership potential?

You've worked your way up.
You've trained, self-improved.
You've given up your own time.
You've inspired others and earned respect.
You've overcome adversity.
You've proven just how good you are.
But you're not done yet.
And that's where our Ready Now programme for aspiring BME leaders can help realise your potential.
Next move, a more senior role.
Or your place on the board.

Ready Now ►►
Realise your potential

Learn more and apply at
www.leadershipacademy.nhs.uk/readynow

Ready for your next challenge as a BME leader?

“It focuses on the challenges you face in the system and equips you with the skills to overcome them”

Patrick Nyarumbu (pictured)

Deputy Executive Nurse and Deputy Director of Quality
City Wide Commissioning – North, South and Central Manchester CCGs

Are you at Band 8a, or the clinical equivalent, or above? Do you aspire to go further? Do you want to be instrumental in helping to make the NHS the best healthcare organisation in the world? If you've answered yes to any of these questions, the next step is to apply for our Ready Now programme.

Ready to fast forward your career

This innovative, inspirational positive action programme from the NHS Leadership Academy is going to enhance your skills, knowledge and ability to succeed. It's a game changer.

As part of the programme, you'll be helping to highlight the importance of a fully inclusive leadership culture that better represents the demographic of our country and showcases the depth and breadth of black and minority ethnic talent across the NHS. So if you're thinking about taking responsibility for your career, then you are ready now.

Learn more and apply at
www.leadershipacademy.nhs.uk/readynow

Ready Now ▶▶
Realise your potential