

Dementia Profile Consultation Form

Introduction

The dementia profile was published in January 2015 using data that was readily available and suitable for inclusion and that reflected the system wide dementia pathway. A commitment was made to actively review and refresh the profile during 2016/17 in line with increased data availability and stakeholder input and feedback. Whilst we have already collected a range of general feedback points from a variety of stakeholders, this process offers an opportunity to provide much more detailed and specific feedback on new metrics and functionality of the profile.

The process below has been agreed by the dementia intelligence network leadership group to ensure as many people as possible can offer suggestion and input into future developments. This will be repeated in the second half of the year.
